One-Day Class, June 24

If you'd like to become a member of FBG or learn more about our church, Discover FBG is your next step. It's a class about why we exist, our core beliefs, what it means to be a part of this church and how God has wired you to serve. The class typically runs for four weeks, but is offered as a one-day class in June. Registration is required at www.fbg.church/discoverfbg. Contact the church office with questions.

Home Groups

Home Groups are small groups that study the Bible and encourage one another to love God, love people and help others do the same. They meet in homes throughout the week and follow a “Home Group Guide” based on each week’s sermon. To get connected with a Home Group, go to www.fbg.church/homegroups.

Dessert and A Book, May 23, 10:00 a.m., Georgetown Campus Parlor

Linda Baker will share her insight on Jennie Allen’s newest book “Nothing to Prove.” Jennie Allen tells it like it is. She explains how the only source of lasting fulfillment is Jesus. He is the living water, a limitless supply that will not only quench our thirst, but will fill us to overflowing to the point that we are motivated to “give God away” and quench the thirst of the world around us. Because of Him, you are loved and you are known. You can take a deep breath because you have NOTHING TO PROVE.

Women on Mission, June 6, 10:00 a.m., Georgetown Campus Parlor

Our missionary spotlight will feature Charlotte Watson who will show and tell about her recent mission trip to middle Tennessee as part of a MissionsFest team. Our Bible study, based on 1 Peter 3:13–22, will feature “Sharing Notes — a Lesson on Suffering.” Come join in the discussion around the question, “if Christ was not exempt from sufferings, why should Christians expect to be spared?” We’ll spend time in prayer for our missionaries having birthdays that day. We’ll also sign cards and pray for some of our own people with special prayer needs. It’s a great time of spiritual growth, missions learning and fellowship with other mission-minded women. For more information, contact coordinator, Charlotte Watson, chwatson@suddenlink.net.
